The Mid-Pacific Road Runners Club organizes or helps with races throughout the year. We get together socially for an annual meeting and awards banquet honoring our outstanding runners, and for periodic gatherings. We post race results, pictures and feature stories on our web site at www.mprrc.com. The Club phone line-(808) 295-MPRR (6777)—provides timely information on upcoming races and records voice mail messages.

Club races are open to the public, but members are eligible for discounted entry fees. Members also receive discounts at some running stores. Members are encouraged to serve the club as volunteers for at least one race per vear. Mid-Pacific Road Runners Club depends on the help of its member volunteers.
